RULES AND REGULATIONS.

RULE 1. Patrons of the library are not to have access to the books in the cases.

RULE 2. Should a patron wish to examine any book, name the letter and numbers opposite its name in the catalogue, to the Librarian, and, if not out, the volume will be handed you. Patrons will greatly facilitate the work of the Librarian by making a list of books wanted, with their letters, and numbers, on a slip of paper before leaving home.

RULE 3. Each patron is earnestly requested to exercise care in taking out books, to see that the number is properly recorded by the Librarian, and also that it is carefully cancelled when the book is returned.

RULE 4. Should the back number on any volume become detached it must be replaced with a good quality of mucilage, or preserved and delivered to the Librarian when the book is returned.

RULE 5. Damages, more than ordinary wear, must be made good by the person in whose name the book is taken out, and the rule, respecting fines, on the inside label of each volume, will be strictly observed.

NOTE. The cases or alcoves are numbered by letter from A to I inclusive. The shelves in each case from one upward,—the top shelf in each case being No. 1. The books in each case are also numbered on the back, every case beginning with No. 1. Thus “Boston Girl’s Ambition, A,” I, 3, 62 signifies that the book can be found in case I, on shelf 3, and No. 62.

improved machinery and com-

your wheel can be quickly repaired by me.

Tires, Wrenches, Graphite, &c.

F. E. McLEARY,

Why is it?

That Johnson can sell goods at such a low figure? Because he knows "goods well bought are half sold," and has made his business the study of a lifetime. When the market is just right he buys even more heavily than most wholesale dealers, and thus gets bed-rock prices.

A full line of groceries at prices to suit the times.
Dry and fancy goods fresh from New York. Great bargains in remnants. My stock of glassware, crockery and tinware is immense. Let me make you prices on that tea or dinner set when you get ready to buy. I sell all the standard makes. No trouble to show my goods. Call, examine, and get my prices.

Don't Trifle with your eyes.

There is such a thing as wearing glasses when you should not and not wearing any when you should. If your eyesight is not what it ought to be, have your eyes examined. A careful examination will cost you nothing. I make it free of charge; that's part of my business. If you don't need glasses all is well; if you do and want my services, you can depend upon the most reliable, honest optical service to be had anywhere. My charges are very reasonable in all cases. Call on me.
